City of Anaheim Cultural Arts Gallery Exhibiting Artists Program

About the Program

Highlighting the talents of selected visual artists, the Anaheim Cultural Arts Gallery exhibits featured works throughout the year at the Downtown Community Center.

Goals

- Provide local visual artists a six to eight week long opportunity to exhibit artwork at the City of Anaheim's Downtown Community Center
- Nurture working relationships/partnerships between local and international artists, presenters, art organizations and the greater Anaheim community
- Encourage creative growth among artists of all ages
- Exhibit artwork of Anaheim & the Greater Southern California region residents
- One artist will be selected as a special featured artist during the year

Artist Qualification

- Demonstrate artistic creativity and ability in recent works
- Demonstrate ability to share their creative approach and engage in dialogue with City Council, the Cultural & Heritage Commission, students and the greater Anaheim community

Application Guidelines

- Complete the Fine Arts Gallery Application
- Submit six (6) recent work samples (photos or digital format acceptable) labeled with artist name, title, medium and dimensions
- Current resume with education, exhibitions, collection(s), review, publications and awards
