

Toyon Park

Located at 945 S. Weir Canyon Road, south of Serrano Avenue, this 16-acre hilltop park provides a perfect environment for sports activities, picnics or simply relaxing. The park is named after the indigenous evergreen shrub, “Toyon,” also known as “California Christmas Berry,” which sprouts attractive red berries in December and can be found at the park’s entrance. A group picnic shelter is available for reservation by calling 714-765-5233.
