Subject: POLICE CANINES WIN AWARDS

The Anaheim Police Department is proud to announce that officers from the APD K9 detail received awards while competing in the annual Redondo Beach K9 Trials. The competition was held on May 8 and 9, 2009 with thirty canine teams competing throughout the region. The competition was broken up into two days, with the first day devoted to narcotics-related searches and the second day devoted to area searches, obstacles, obedience, and decoy-related problems. Each officer and their canine partners displayed a high level of teamwork and excellence throughout the course of competition.
