

Cultural and Heritage Commission

Mother Colony & Woelke-Stoffel Historic Houses

The Mother Colony House (built in 1857) and the Woelke-Stoffel House (built in 1894) offer the community a glimpse into Anaheim's past. Over 4,000 third grade students tour both facilities annually.

- Contact Name/Title: Jan D. Newell, Local History Curator
- Address: 414 and 418 N. West St., Anaheim CA 92805
- Telephone Number: (714) 765-1850
- Tours by appointment.
- E-mail Address: jnewell@anaheim.net
- Website Address: www.anaheim.net
- Non-Profit #: 95-6000666
- 2 city employees
- Uses the library's website and community involvement to market to the citizens of Anaheim.
- Collaborates with the Anaheim Historical Society, Anaheim Museum Inc., Anaheim City School District and other heritage organizations.

Woelke-Stoffel House Support Group:

- Contact Name/Title: Elsie S. Reed, Chairman
- Telephone Number: (714) 535-1388
- 12 Docents and 18 Supporters
- Non-Profit#: Federal 95-214-7698/State 698-0029-0
- Organization meets on the 1st Friday of each month.
- Holds multiple events throughout the year.
- Meets with other organizations upon request to market to the citizens of Anaheim.