

Magnolia Power Project

The Magnolia Power Project (MPP) is a clean, natural gas-fired, combined cycle conventional electric generating plant located in Burbank, California. MPP is owned by Southern California Public Power Authority (SCPPA) and is operated by Burbank Water & Power.

The City has acquired a 38% (92 MW base capacity and 26 MW of peaking capacity) entitlement in the project through a Power Sales Agreement with SCPPA.

STATISTICS

- Location: Burbank, CA
- Type: Natural Gas
- Term Started: September 2005
- Contract Capacity: 310 MW
- Term: 32 Years
- Term Ends: June 2037

ANAHEIM'S SHARE

- 38% | 118 MW

GENERATION PROFILE

- Continuous – 24/7

