

Stepping Up

Learn Love Read

Get ready to shake, rattle & roll with your little one!

At “Stepping Up” the librarian will share songs and lullabies, nursery rhymes, fingerplays, simple games, picture books, board books, and ways that parents may explore language in a lively and entertaining way with their children at home.

Who: Children who are mobile and active up to 2 years of age, with their parents or caregiver

What: A 30-minute storytime designed just for them!

Class size is limited to 10 parents and their children.
