

Big A: City Council

City Council public discussions, city staff updates and closed session hearings

PUBLIC HEARINGS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, DISCUSSIONS

- Jan. 15, 2019: City Council hears public comment, discusses and votes to update lease with Angels Baseball
- Feb. 19, 2019: City Council considers and provides direction for city manager to enlist appraisal services for city land around Angel Stadium of Anaheim
- June 4, 2019: Mayor Harry Sidhu calls for city negotiators to include himself, then-City Manager Chris Zapata and City Attorney Robert Fabela, supported by staff and consultants
- July 16, 2019: City Council votes to designate Mayor Harry Sidhu as the exclusive Council representative among city negotiators
- Aug. 27, 2019: City Council hears from the public and discusses potential negotiations considerations, reviews 1996 stadium lease
- Sept. 24, 2019: City Council reviews meeting minutes from Jan. 15, 2019, lease update
- Oct. 29, 2019: City Council tables agenda items on releasing stadium land appraisal, discussing review period for any negotiated agreement
- Dec. 20, 2019: City Council approves purchase and sale agreement for Angel Stadium of Anaheim and land
- May 12, 2020: City Council approves updated timetable for considering disposition and development agreement, Angels commitment agreement, master site plan
- Sept. 29-30, 2020: City Council considers and approves agreements and actions committing Angels Baseball to play in Anaheim, selling Angel Stadium of Anaheim and land for $320 million and seeing development around the stadium

Big A: City Council

City Council public discussions, city staff updates and closed session hearings

PUBLIC HEARINGS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, DISCUSSIONS

- Oct. 6, 2020: City Council considers and approves disposition and development agreement and zoning code amendment in required second hearing
- July 13, 2021: Council Member Avelino Valencia requests a Council discussion of an April 28, 2021, California Department of Housing and Community Development letter on the state Surplus Land Act
- July 21, 2021: City Council hears update from city attorney and discusses Housing and Community Development letter on the state Surplus Land Act

CLOSED SESSION

- Aug. 13, 2019: City Council hears about draft appraisal for city land around the stadium in closed session
- Sept. 24, 2019: City Council hears update about appraisal for city land around the stadium in closed session
- Nov. 19, 2019: City Council in closed session hears about real estate-related aspects of meeting between negotiating team, SRB Management LLC, Angels Baseball
- Dec. 3, 2019: City Council in closed session hears about real estate-related aspects of meetings between city negotiators, SRB, Angels Baseball
- Dec. 7, 2021: City Council hears closed session update from city attorney on Housing and Community Development and the state Surplus Land Act

Big A: City Council

City Council public discussions, city staff updates and closed session hearings

CITY MANAGER UPDATES

- March 5, 2019: City Council hears update from then-City Manager Chris Zapata on hiring of appraiser for city land around the stadium
- March 19, 2019: City Council hears update from city manager on a March 18 meeting with the Angels that covered the team's retaining of Brook Street as a real estate consultant
- April 16, 2019: City Council hears update from city manager about the city's hiring of sports consultant Dan Barrett
- May 7, 2019: City Council hears update from acting City Manager Greg Garcia about the status of the city-commissioned appraisal
- May 14, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager on a request received by the city to meet with Angels Baseball
- June 4, 2019: City Council hears update from city manager on a May 20 meeting between the city and Angels Baseball, and that the team is focusing on Anaheim with the additional hiring of architectural, finance and engineering consultants
- June 18, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager that there have been no additional meetings with Angels Baseball since May 20
- July 16, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager that have been no new developments and no additional meetings with Angels Baseball since May 20
- July 30, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager that the city has received a draft of the commissioned appraisal for city land around the stadium and the City Council is set to be briefed on it in closed session on Aug. 13
- Aug. 13, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager on a July 31 meeting with Angels Baseball President John Carpino about current stadium

issues; the city's hiring of real estate consultant Larry Kosmont; and that an initial negotiation meeting with the Angels is expected in October

- Sept. 9, 2019: City Council hears update from the city manager on an expected City Council closed session appraisal update set for Sept. 24 and a Sept. 9 conversation with Angels President Carpino working toward a meeting in October
- Nov. 5, 2019: City Manager Jim Vanderpool updates Council on meeting scheduled with team ownership, Angels Baseball for Nov. 15, 2019
- Nov. 19, 2019: City manager updates Council on meeting scheduled for Nov. 22, 2019, between city negotiating team, SRB, Angels Baseball
- Dec. 3, 2019: City manager updates Council on release of stadium land appraisal
- Feb. 4, 2020: City manager updates Council on upcoming Feb. 7 meeting with SRB, Angels Baseball on second-stage agreements
- May 5, 2020: City manager updates Council on progress on second-stage agreements
- July 14, 2020: City manager updates Council on progress on second-stage agreements
- July 28, 2020: City manager updates Council on status of second-stage agreements
- Aug. 11, 2020: City manager updates Council on status of second-stage agreements
- Aug. 25, 2020: City manager updates Council on upcoming Planning Commission meeting, upcoming virtual town halls and expected City Council hearing in late September