

Make a Mummy and a Sarcophagus

What was a sarcophagus and a mummy? In Ancient Egypt after a person dies, their body was preserved in a very special and elaborate way. After their organs were removed their body was wrapped in yards of linen (a type of cloth) and then buried in a sarcophagus (coffin).

Directions

1. Color, cut and assemble sarcophagus.
2. Carefully wrap popsicle stick with yarn. This will create your mummy.
3. Placed wrapped mummy in its sarcophagus.
